Events for Adults

Tues, Apr. 7, 5:30-6:45, Helpline of Delaware & Morrow Counties QPR (Question, Persuade, Refer) Suicide Prevention Training

Selover Public Library is partnering with Helpline of Delaware and Morrow Counties, suicide prevention team, to teach people how to recognize warning signs, respond to someone in crisis, and connect them with help. Registration is required through our event calendar at seloverlibrary.org.

Wed, Apr. 8, 12:00-1:00, Census Data for Grant Writing

Join Tim Sarko, Data Dissemination Specialist for the US Census Bureau, for this one-hour informative webinar to learn how to use free Census data and online tools to get demographics and economic data for grant writing. This event is hosted by the libraries of Morrow County. Registration required through our event calendar at seloverlibrary.org.

Wed, Apr. 8, 6:00-7:00, Selover Shelfies: Book Club For Adults

This book club is for adults who love reading and want to connect with other adults who do too! There are no assigned books to read. Simply read what you like and share with others so we all get exposed to new books, authors, and genres. We meet the 2nd Wednesday of each month. Refreshments will be served.

Thurs, Apr. 9, 10:00-12:00, Morrow Memories Road Show

Join us at Marengo United Methodist Church for a special storytelling event celebrating Morrow County's past. Patrons who grew up in Morrow County are invited to share their stories and be recorded as part of the America 250 commemoration.

Thurs, Apr. 9, 6:00-7:30, Bingo For Books!

Join us for free bingo fun and win books for prizes! Light refreshments will be served.

Sat, Apr. 11, 10:00-12:00, Morrow Memories Road Show

Join us at Sparta United Methodist Church for a special storytelling event celebrating Morrow County's past. Patrons who grew up in Morrow County are invited to share their stories and be recorded as part of the America 250 commemoration.

Tues, Apr. 14, 5:00-6:30, Morrow Memories Road Show - Personal History Workshop

As part of the America 250 grant, join Mark Jordan for this Morrow Memories Road Show personal history workshop. For this storytelling writing workshop, Mark will guide attendees through a creative writing session to write down their personal stories as documents of Morrow County history. Registration is required through our event calendar at seloverlibrary.org.

Fri, Apr. 17, 6:00-7:30, Music in the Stacks - Ron McDole

Music in the Stacks brings live musical entertainment and educational fun right into Selover Public Library. Enjoy engaging performances from local musicians, learn something new about music, and share a great experience together - fun for the whole family! In April we welcome Ron McDole of Common Soul Music, for a guitar performance and demonstration of guitar maintenance and repair.

Sat, Apr. 18, 10:00-12:00, Morrow Memories Road Show

Join us at Selover Library for a special storytelling event celebrating Morrow County's past. Patrons who grew up in Morrow County are invited to share their stories and be recorded as part of the America 250 commemoration.

Mon, Apr. 20, 6:30-7:30, Census Data for Your Business

Join Tim Sarko, Data Dissemination Specialist for the US Census Bureau, for this one-hour informative webinar where you will be introduced to a wealth of Census statistics about households and businesses that will help you understand who are your customers and competitors, and other valuable data about where you do business. This event is hosted by the libraries of Morrow County. Registration required through our event calendar at seloverlibrary.org.

Tues, Apr. 21, 4:00-5:00, Chess Club

Join us every month for strategy, challenge, and fun! Open to ages 10+ and all skill levels. Come sharpen your mind and make new friends over the board!

Tues, Apr. 21, 6:00-7:00, Tree and Invasive Plant Identification

Join Kristin from Keep Morrow County Beautiful and Tyler from Morrow County Soil and Water in the woods behind Selover Public Library to learn all about identifying trees and invasive plants in the area!

Wed, Apr. 22, 6:00-7:00, Officially Speaking

Join us for an informal roundtable discussion with Jennifer Hicks and Kristin Ruth of DKMM (Delaware, Knox, Marion and Morrow) Solid Waste District. Let's get to know the leaders of our community!

Thurs, Apr. 23, 6:00-7:00, Meet a New Hobby - Letterboxing

Get ready to meet new hobbies at Selover Public Library! This month we are introducing letterboxing. Letterboxing is a unique treasure-hunting hobby that combines hiking with artistic expression, where participants follow clues to locate hidden, weatherproof boxes in public areas. Once found, visitors use personal rubber stamps to document their journey in the box's logbook and add a stamp from the box to their own personal notebook.

Children's Programs

Wed, Apr. 1, 11:00-12:00, Spring Break Quake Break!

Join Professor Mark for Quake Break, a hands on spring break program where kids will learn how earthquakes happen and test their engineering skills. Using everyday materials, participants will build their own "quake-proof" structures and see how they would hold up in an earthquake!

Thurs, Apr. 2, 11:00-12:00, Spring Break Cake Break!

Join us for a "Nailed It" Peep-themed cake pop program, focusing on fun over perfection. We will use Peeps as our models and will attempt to make cake pops that look as close to the real thing as possible. Come join us for a program that should be both fun and delicious! For ages 6-17, participants aged 6-9 must have a parent with them to assist. Registration is required through our event calendar at seloverlibrary.org.
