Events for Adults

Tues, Nov. 10, 6:00–7:00, Social Security: Your Questions Answered
Before you retire, it's important to understand your Social Security options and the impact your decisions will have. This seminar will cover how Social Security fits into your retirement income plan and what to consider as you decide when to start taking benefits. Join Edward Jones Financial Advisor David Winand for this important presentation. Registration required. Please call (419) 751-0092.

Wed, Nov. 11, 6:00–7:00, Selover Shelfies: Book Club for Adults
This book club is for adults who love reading and want to connect with other adults who do too! Read what you like and share with others so we can all discover new books, authors, and genres. Refreshments will be served.

Sat, Nov. 14, 1:00–3:00, Jigsaw Puzzle Challenge
Join your fellow puzzlers for our Jigsaw Puzzle Challenge! Form teams of 1–4 puzzlers. Five teams will compete to see who can be the first to assemble a 500-piece puzzle. Registration is required through our event calendar at seloverlibrary.org.

Tues, Nov. 17, 10:30–11:30, AI Made Simple: AI Safety, Scams, Privacy, and Deepfakes
Part 3 of our AI Made Simple series will help you recognize AI-generated scams, identify deepfake images and videos, protect your personal information, and use AI more safely and responsibly. This session is especially valuable for families, seniors, community volunteers, consumers, and anyone who uses the internet, social media, email, or mobile devices.

Sat, Nov. 21, 4:00–5:30, Fold Into A New Hobby
Interested in discovering a new pastime? Come learn origami, the art of paper folding. Together we will fold paper into beautiful 2-and-3-dimensional shapes! No experience needed. All supplies and instructions provided. For adults and teens aged 11 and up. Registration is required through our event calendar at seloverlibrary.org.
