Events for Adults

Wed, June 11, 6:00-7:00, Selover Shelfies: Book Club for Adults

This book club is for adults who love reading and want to connect with other adults who do too! Simply read what you like and share with others so we all get exposed to new books, authors, and genres. Refreshments will be served.

Sat, June 14, 1:00-3:00, Jigsaw Puzzle Challenge

Join your fellow puzzlers for our first every Jigsaw Puzzle Challenge! Assemble teams of 1-4 puzzlers. Five teams will compete, each racing to be the first to assemble a 500-piece puzzle. Registration is required through our event calendar at seloverlibrary.org.

Sat, June 14, 7:00-8:00, Chesterville Summer Arts Series: The Day the Banks Closed and the Money Ran Out, Chester Twp Town Hall

Free live theatre presented by Chesterville Summer Arts Series. Go back in time to the Great Depression with an Ohio auto mechanic trying to make ends meet! Check out items at Selover Library's pop-up library.

Tues, June 17, 4:00-5:00, Chess Club

Ages 10 through adult. All levels welcome.

Wed, June 25, 6:00-7:00, Officially Speaking

Join us for an informal roundtable discussion with Sarina Atwell, Morrow County Dog Warden. Let's get to know the leaders of our community!

Sat, June 28, 7:00-8:00, Chesterville Summer Arts Series: John "Bonesetter" Reese and The Birth of Sports Medicine, Chester Twp Town Hall

Free live theatre presented by Chesterville Summer Arts Series. Learn all about the unique life of the "Bonesetter" and those who he treated in his practice of the ancient art of joint, muscle, and bone manipulation! Check out items at Selover Library's pop-up library.
